

MONASTIC LIFE

Unfortunately, monastic life can lead to perversion and immaturity. A short visit to any monastery will verify this. In Tibet the monasteries also produced many enlightened ones and are the structure for religious discipline to take root. They are the way of the past. The future is the commune. The commune encourages sexual intimacy with the understanding that it is a healthy stage of human development. When people are free to explore sex and intimacy openly, they mature very quickly. Around age 40 the interest in sex starts to fade. Then the inner journey can continue easily without the tragedy of sexual repression, perversion and immaturity. The commune will be the basic social unit in the new millennium. Each commune has 10,000 seekers meditating, working and celebrating together. Each commune is connected to all others and people can move around as they feel, anywhere in the world. Everywhere will be home. Tibet has a beautiful tradition of enlightenment that is in danger of dying. The reason is that the time of the monastery is past. The commune supports retreat and spiritual discipline in a climate of celebration and love. It is the way of the future for everyone from all religions and paths.

The end of division is about to happen. Unity is an idea whose time has finally come. Naturally everyone will not be able to keep their beliefs. Unity is the end of all belief. Unity is the vision of God for the new millennium. Unity is spiritual maturity. We are destined to be united in God in Love. We are about to embrace the first world religion, the religion of Unity. Unity has only one hypothesis: God is all there is, I am not. No belief is needed at all. Unity opens up the possibility for the end of conflict. Unity means everyone is valued as a child of God. Unity is the age of enlightenment. Unity brings peace on Earth. Beloveds, the Kali Yuga is almost over. We have passed through the long dark night of ignorance. Now we enter the Sat Yuga, The age of Truth and Unity.
