For women the way is different, women have to be penetrated by God. Divine Love penetrates your heart.

For this to happen it is also helpful to be alone. Your relationship keeps you busy with emotional trivia. Your attachment brings you out of love into jealousy. To purify your heart is all that's needed for you. Your heart is connected to the fourth chakra in your chest. The heart opens and opens and opens. For women, enlightenment is in the heart. It is surrender in love in God. For women, God is needed. The Beloved can only be the divine. All masters are gates, the divine is behind the gate. Pass through it. Attachment to any human is the barrier. Let go of all your attachments. Face God alone. In your naked need of man, God comes like a fresh flower of pure love. Give God space.

Face your pain. Purify your heart.

advaita vedanta

advaita means non-dual. it is the ultimate understanding.

advaita is as far as the intellect can go. it is the only philosophy that comes close to the truth. all enlightened masters have an intuitive understanding of advaita.

not many can articulate its refined subtlety. advaita is theistic. buddha is agnostic. shiva is ambiguous. osho follows shiva. ambiguity has the advantage of no a priori assumptions. experience will tell. advaita has the advantage of being rational. advaita requires a leap of faith. advaita says: consciousness is all there is, you are not separate from that. this can only be experientially verified by enlightenment. advaita requires your tacit agreement, before you are initiated. this is not blind belief. it is a working hypothesis. all enlightened ones verify advaita.

consciousness at rest is god, consciousness in motion is existence.
