

DEVOTION FREES

shivā says: devotion frees. he is right.

devotion means the beloved comes first. and, the beloved can only be the divine. the divine is also called god.

god has no form and all forms are his. when you see god

in everyone's eyes you are free. the beyond is unknowable

by any human. god is known through this creation.

Life is god.

and non-existence is the source of life. god is all that exists in all realms. you are not. your separation is a play of god. soon you will remember and laugh!
